

4. What might you hope to do in the future with what you learn from this summer internship?

5. What service activities are you currently involved in?

6. What is the greatest strength that you'll bring to Eighth Day Farm?

7. What is a weakness you bring?

8. What are your hobbies, interests, favorite activities, etc.?

References: Must submit two separate references. Choose people who can best represent your character, spiritual maturity, work ethic, and fitness for urban farming, e.g. a pastor, teacher, employer. Please do not include a family member.

Reference One

Name:

Email:

Address:

Relationship:

Reference Two

Name:

Email:

Address:

Relationship:

You may substitute a prepared resume for the Education, Experience, and Employment sections below.

Education:

Name degrees you have earned or are currently pursuing and from what institution Please describe any focal area of study that might help you in this internship. List what years the degrees have been completed and/pr when a current degree in progress will be completed.

Experience:

Please list the basic information (organization location, brief description & dates) about your 3-5 most relevant learning experiences outside the traditional classroom setting, such as participation in work projects, study abroad programs, farm/agriculture experience, community development experiences, etc.

Employment:

Please list the basic information (employer, location, job title, one-sentence job description, and dates of employment) about your three most recent employers with the most recent listed first.

Most Recent Employment:

Previous Employment:

Previous Employment:

Self Evaluation:

Rate yourself for each of these characteristics.

Answer with: Never, Rarely, Occasionally, Frequently, Always

Enjoy outdoor physical work:

Treat others with respect:

Open to changes, willing to be flexible:

Demonstrate servant attitude:

Enjoy community:

Able to handle failure productively:

Have a healthy self-image:

Have a sense of curiosity:

Find yourself spiritually hungry:

Encourage those around you:

Able to resolve conflict with others:

Willing to admit when you are wrong:

Value Opportunities to learn:

Generally enjoy life:

If you have any other thoughts or special requests, please share them here.